“100 and Beyond”

DR RICHARD KOGAN

SEPTEMBER 13, 2018 (THURSDAY) Born in 1918, Bernstein is one of the most well-known musicians and composers America ever produced. Kogan, Julliard- trained, Harvard Undergrad, as well as Medical School, explores the emotional contradiction that fueled Lenny’s illustrious, brilliant, but often mentally troubled career. With a distinguished resume, himself, as a concert pianist, psychiatrist at Cornell Med., and master story-teller, Dr Kogan plays thrilling renditions of Bernstein’s most renowned works, such as “Westside Story”, while sharing valuable insights into the mind behind the music

LYNN NOVICK

LYNN NOVICK—A MORNING WITH LYNN NOVICK
OCTOBER 10, 2018 (WEDNESDAY) You have most likely seen Lynn’s 18 hour series The Vietnam War as well as Jazz, The Civil War, Baseball (Emmy award) and Frank Lloyd Wright (Peabody award). How did this Magna cum Laude, Yale Grad create the career she has today and when did the collaborative partnership with Ken Burns, who co-directed/produced the above films, come to be. Their documentary prowess is unparalleled. Spend a morning getting to know Lynn as she traces her fascinating career. We will also get a preview of her latest projects: College Behind Bars and her upcoming collaboration with Burns entitled Ernest Hemingway, slated to debut in 2020

JANICE SINDEN

JANICE SINDEN “THE NEXT STAGE!” CEO, DENVER CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS
OCTOBER 29, 2018 (MONDAY) Named one of the top 25 Most Influential Women in Colorado by the Colorado Women’s Foundation, Janice leads 300 artisans and administrators who have helped create the DCPA, a cultural gem and the largest non-profit theatre organization in the nation. But there are greater plans ahead and, like the DIA preview in 2015, we will catch a glimpse of the master planning process for The Next Stage.: The Future of Denver’s Performing Arts Complex. If you are a fan of the arts and value the valid contributions they make to society, come hear what is in store for Best of Broadway, Symphonic Music, Opera, Ballet, Theatre and Education for our community. Janice is pleased to visit us this year as she regretfully had to cancel her appearance last February.

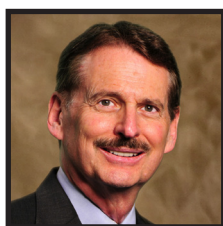

LOUIS MASUR, PhD.

LOUIS MASUR, PhD – LINCOLN AND THE CIVIL WAR
JANUARY 9, 2019 (WEDNESDAY) Few teachers have the knowledge and passion that Louis exhibits toward Abraham Lincoln. “Lincoln’s my man,” proclaims this award-winning Distinguished Professor of American Studies and History at Rutgers. If you were lucky enough to experience his presentation on Hamilton vs. Jefferson you know, first-hand, of his scholarly prowess. His knack for focusing on discreet moments, unpacking their meaning and placing them in perfect perspective is delightful. As a huge fan of Bruce Springsteen, he actually wrote an acclaimed book on his life and storytelling music.

SALLY BEDELL SMITH

SALLY BEDELL SMITH – A ROYAL LOOK AT THE ROYAL FAMILY
FEBRUARY 13, 2019 (WEDNESDAY) The Royal Wedding has passed in spectacular fashion. What happens next? Sally is well known for her examinations of life in the Royal Palace of Great Britain. Her 2012 book, Elizabeth the Queen won numerous awards which then inspired her to write Prince Charles: The Passions and Paradoxes of an Improbable Life. She has written for TIME, TV GUIDE and VANITY FAIR, following graduation from Columbia School of Journalism. She has spent the last two months in England, covering the wedding, planning a new book, and garnering in All Things Royal!!

DR. ELLIOT ENGEL

ELLIOT ENGEL, PhD – MASTER OF MAYBERRY: The Miraculous Life of Andy Griffith
APRIL 16, 2019 (TUESDAY) 25 years ago, we were awestruck by a 45 year old professor who regaled us with How William Became Shakespeare. Hence, 25 years later, a quote: “Thank you SO MUCH for bringing to life many characters who were just names to memorize in school.” Elliot makes us hang on every word while we learn in an amazingly easy fashion. He promises we will be enthralled by the true story of Andy Griffith and his unlikely path to becoming an icon. A high school teacher from North Carolina? Really? Don’t miss this one!!!!
